

1. CONFLICT I

A bomb explodes, a life eroded
Millions screaming, arguing whose side is guilty
Permeate the road, rewrite the code
Become the saviour you always thought you could be

Eye for an eye, truth for a truth
Your enemy fears you

Honesty or image
The whole wide world will not listen to you
So what's your message, who are you

At a loss for sympathy,
Afraid of those afraid of the unknown
Up on their throne
Watching those with no empathy
Telling myself they tell themselves to grow
All on their own

Honesty or image
The whole wide world will not listen to you
So what's your message, who are you
Redemption, ascension
Beyond yourself and what is true
Revolution

Torn between the empire
Or following my desire
Burn the system to the ground
So it is lost and never found
Reject the change, choose to resist
Erase the rejects from the list

Embrace mutual annihilation

Fear will fail us all

2. PRACTICE WHAT YOU PREACH

Practice what you preach

What lies beneath
A frail thin shell tore by teeth
Make one false move, start to break
Cry for help, it's too late, your mistake

Living up to what I've written
Leaving some truths unspoken
Is it my turn, my time to burn yet, am I now vilified
Is my fate now set, you won't decide

Kill your high horse
Get down one more notch
Where's the compassion
Now that you've become the ruler
Kill your high horse
Get back down to earth
Being a gatekeeper
Won't keep you inside forever

Spread so thin, where do I begin
Searching for the truth, I'm failing
Wondering if it even exists
Humility, finding a place for me
Living on the edge of reason
Changing faith with every season

Traitor!

Kill your high horse

Your inner transgressions come to life

Spitting on us, not lending a hand
Miserable, one day you'll understand

Practice what you preach
Learn what you teach
A walking contradiction
A hypocrite, no self-reflection

Your inner transgressions come to life

What lies beneath

I can't wait to watch you fall

3. EXILED

Today they fall asleep
Tomorrow feels the same
But not the same to me
For me it slips away

Wrestling with my thoughts, I can't break through Fighting on my own
Trusting no one, coming undone

Turned upside down, I won't be drowned
Excluded from respect, pushing through disconnect

My mask came off today
Starting again from zero
I won't be, living through you, feeling through you
Your fear won't run through me
You won't become the hero
Seething through my skin

Won't be defiled, won't be exiled

To sell my soul, to make me new
Is to accept your point of view
Out of my mind, falling behind
Finding myself and what is true
Revolution

My mask came off today
Starting again from zero
I won't be, living through you, feeling through you
Your fear won't run through me

I won't be exiled
I won't be exiled
Pushing through you, feeding from you

To sell my soul, to make me new
Is to accept your point of view

4. DIMENSIONS APART

Is this where we're headed

Am I dissociating? Is it a simulation?
Reflection of the past, or a glimpse of our future
Must stop daydreaming, I need to step up
It's time to get up and start doing what's right

There's no redemption for those who stay down

Is this where we're headed
We are dimensions apart
Stronger when we're united
We may be strong but we ain't immortal
I won't be disconnected
We will pull through please stay calm
Though our strength will be tested
We won't let this world collapse

Our planet is at the brink of destruction
We can't erase the mistakes we've made
Clock is ticking
Technology rising
It's time for change
Time for a fresh start

Ignorant
You're avoiding the truth
Evolution
Is the only way
This is a war, a fight for our future

We must stop them now, they will break the link
We must stop them now, or we wake up dead

(Erasing) Our only hope
(Deleting) Our chance of success

Time to reconnect

Is this where we're headed
Stronger when we're united
We may be strong but we ain't immortal
We will pull through please stay calm
Though our strength will be tested

Our failure ain't set in stone

5. FROM ONE SIDE TO ANOTHER

The wind is swaying, from one side to another

One-track mind

Black or white

I'm torn apart, what do I do

It's up to me, but I don't know better

I can't change my aspirations

Despite knowing the challenge along the way

What if I move on clueless of the path?

Being so average in the aftermath?

No room for failure

If I do fail, my life shatters

All this pressure

Because everything matters

I can't change my aspirations

Despite knowing the challenge along the way

Along the way

Can't let myself go astray

I can't run from who I chose to be

This is the way

I risk putting myself in a state of constant disappointment

But it brings a sense of purpose, brings me where I wish to go

Alone in the grey, taking comfort in the shades

Will its light show me the way

Follow myself in my intuitions until the day

(The wind is swaying, from one side to another)

Salvation finally comes for me

This is the way

This is my way

6. MOONRIDER

Today they fall asleep
Not the same to me

Sitting on the edge of reason
Set upon my ways
Struggling to get through the question
And do instead of say

Alone in my quest
Alone in this test
Reaching towards perfection
Unreachable obsession

Feeling
Screaming
Through this veil upon society

This may be my last season
I'm leaving soon
Riding to the moon

Today they fall asleep
Not the same to me

It's not worth the effort
The struggle never ending
Felt exiled and so alone
For so long and I won't come home

I won't come home

I'm leaving soon
