

NEVER REBORN (LYRICS BY NEVER REBORN)

Envision Immortality, where we come from, where we go
Life's mysteries, in search of answers we'll never know...we'll never know

Flesh and Bone, Never Reborn
Still the hope of afterlife takes form in my dreams

Victims of faith, false hope sometimes better than none
Religious belief, conceals the wounds when a life has gone...we carry on

Flesh and Bone, Never Reborn
Look into the light, tell me what do you see

Words that once were preached, known now as deceit
Things we once believed, eyes opened, now see

And we are Never Reborn
We're forever free from scorn!!!

Don't look for the light, it's nowhere to be seen
Well, it's nowhere to be seen!

Still the hope of afterlife takes form in my dreams

Envision Immortality, where we come from, where we go
Life's mysteries, in search of answers we'll never know...we'll never know

Never Reborn.....Why?.....Why?

EXISTENCE DENIED (LYRICS BY NEVER REBORN)

Awaken in the night, surrounded by light
Movement denied, horror I cannot disguise

On a cold bed I lie

Horrified, yet cannot cry
And those black eyes, so cold inside
Drill comes to life, inside they spy
Under the knife, once more am I

Look to the skies in search of life
Eyes are blind as they erase our minds

Their existence denied and they cover up with lies

All of these years I have been waiting for you to arrive
And never knowing you have been taking me in the night

As a child I stood in fear

Horrified, yet could not cry
And those black eyes, so cold inside
Drill came to life, inside they spied
Under the knife, alone was I

Look to the skies in search of life
Eyes are blind as they erase our minds

Their Existence Denied and they cover up with lies

I'm standing in the night, and look up to the sky, and there I see their lights
They have me hypnotized, which come as no surprise, been like this my whole life
They take me to a place, at first I do feel safe, then terror shows it's face
They poke and probe my mind, they see me from inside, our fate is just to die

As I look into your eyes, I can see thru your disguise
You don't feel the pain we feel, no emotions or free will
So I lay under your knife, as you poke and probe my mind
A reason you hope to find, for the existence of mankind

Our fate is just to die!!!

ASHES OF OUR PAST (LYRICS BY NEVER REBORN)

Look up to the stars, seek who we are
Who have we might have been, does time ever end

Scattered destinies, all Ashes they seem

Alone awake was I, just a child, so many nights
Visions of a distant life, one that was mine

Throughout my childhood many memories filled my mind
Reflections from my past, of the ones I've left behind
Faces and voices so distinct they stir in me
Such sorrow for this family whom again I will never see

The things we cherish most in life will never last
All of our memories become Ashes of Our Past

Sweet daughter full of life, strong son of mine
Will I remember you, when again I rise

Anguish it fills my heart, for I know when the end comes Life lost, but not forgotten, from past lives I run
The healer of all wounds is time, death shall set us free
Cursed to remember, there is no mercy for me

The things we cherish most in life will never last
All of our memories become Ashes of Our Past

Ashes...All Ashes...Ashes of Our Past

Look up to the stars, seek who we are
Who have we might have been, does time ever end

destinies, all Ashes they seem

HAUNTED ETERNALLY (LYRICS BY NEVER REBORN)

I walk thru shadows in the night, your voice calls out my name
Your whispers echo through my mind, I wander endlessly

An unmarked grave is where I am led, memories dance within my head
It cannot be, oh this must not be, the place where you and I first met

I Hear Your Desperate Screams
Haunted Eternally

A summer shared when we were young, we danced the nights away
Both dressed in black, and hearts enwrapped, memories that will never fade

Your tears they flow, oh it hurts me so, the earth cannot conceal your grief
My heart it breaks as I hear you weep, together how I long to be

Alone here am I, how I wish I could be at your side
To look deep in your eyes, and slip away with the night

The moon, how it shines, casting shadows that play with my mind
Your silhouette I now see, holding flowers you brought here for me

My heart turns black
In horror and disbelief, it's not you down below, it is me
A dagger in hand held up high, a sip of wine as you say your goodbyes
I try to cry out to thee, and beg the one I adore, don't join me

We walk thru shadows in the night, in sorrow call each other's names
Silent whispers trapped in time, we wander endlessly

Our tears they flow, oh it hurts us so, the earth cannot conceal our grief
Our hearts they break, we forever weep, together we shall never be

Oh, Hear Our Desperate Screams
Haunted Eternally
Hear Our Desperate Screams
Haunted Eternally

Our shadows they cross in the night

DEATHMARCH ARMAGEDDON (LYRICS BY NEVER REBORN)

Bound by the demon who cursed me
Strength from the hatred within
Blood of my victims surround me
The deviant one shows you his grin

You'll feel my wrath if you cross me
Once I'm provoked it's too late
Those who have dared to betray me
Tortured, then suffer their fate

When darkness falls you better hide
I'll seek you out and make you mine
This is the ending of our time
Deathmarch Armageddon

There is no way to contain me
There's no controlling the beast
Many will try to destroy me
Many shall fall at my feet

Your crucifix will not harm me
Dare not get caught in my gaze
Kissed by an Angel of Sin
Evil in every way

When darkness falls you better hide
I'll seek you out and make you mine
This is the ending of our time
Deathmarch Armageddon

Death Marches On!!!

As you walk thru the Valley of the Shadows of Death
You shall Feel my Evil

Bound by the demon who cursed me
Strength from the hatred within
Blood of my victims surround me
The deviant one shows you his grin

You'll feel my wrath if you cross me
Once I'm provoked it's too late
Those who have dared to betray me
Tortured, then suffer their fate

When darkness falls you better hide
I'll seek you out and make you mine
This is the ending of our time
Deathmarch Armageddon

FALLEN ONE (LYRICS BY NEVER REBORN)

The great dragon was cast out
That ancient serpent called the Devil, or Satan
He who leads the world astray
He was cast down ...down to earth...and his Angels with Him

Behold what I see!!!

He will rise up from the ashes of the Fallen One
He will build his kingdom under the eyes of God
He will lead our children, shall rule earth thru fear
Rising up from the sea, so He shall appear

He will hold great powers, never seen before by man
He will rage mighty wars, wars upon God's land
In his divine hour He will reign from sea to sea
Seven Heads, Ten Horns, Ten Crowns, such Blasphemies

You will wear his mark on your hand or head, 6 6 6
You shall bear his mark, or suffer the end, 6 6 6

(Lead)

This is the Final War as foretold
Prophesied for centuries old
The death of Gabriel and the death of your Lord
The Mighty Dragon now rules over the world

CHILDREN OF FIRE (LYRICS BY NEVER REBORN)

And here I stand now, fully knowing why I have arrived
The smell of fire and brimstone, sickened and frightened am I

What lies before us in the darkness that awaits
Feel the menace, the cruelty, the emptiness, and the hate

As Fires Burn High
The Promise of Paradise
Forever Denied
For the Children of Fire

Book of Lies has opened, who shall live evermore
Visions fill my head now as revelations here unfold

Listen as they cry out for mercy, feel their mighty thunderous roar
A million voices in anguish burning in the eternal storm

Emerging from the flames the serpent spreads his wings
Surrounded by the smoke and embers, an image all so supreme

With arms held high, the creature smiles, "Come Forth Child Into the Fire"

And to my surprise the flames reached out for me
Filled with passion, "take my hand" whispered so silently

Hail and fire falling from the sky, total chaos in my mind
Satan's laughter heard far and wide, thunder and lightning now arrive

With heart filled hatred and vengeance we are born
With no repentance we kneel before His throne

(Lead)

Ten thousand years, with no end near, the fire rages on Ten thousand years, thru hopes and fears, the fire rages on

The Fire Rages On!!!

As Fires Burn High
The Promise of Paradise
Forever Denied
For the Children of Fire

The Book Lies still open, pages withered and worn
The names are long forgotten, the fires burn evermore

Listen as they cry out for mercy, feel their mighty thunderous roar
A million voices in anguish burning in the eternal storm

Eternal Storm....Forever More

With arms held high, the creature smiles, "Come Forth Child Into the Fire"

The Children of Fire
The Children of Fire
The Children of Fire

REQUIEM (WORLD OF HURT) (LYRICS BY NEVER REBORN)

Drawn out, weary from the sun
Living life in danger for the evil deeds you've done
Condemned here by members of the church
Life here in the desert to castigate your birth

And all for being born from the womb of a witch
And being born from the womb of a witch is a sin
They placed you in the desert sun to die
But tooth and nail to the ground you have survived

And now your mothers Master grins
With open arms He takes you in
An evil child of evil birth
His Requiem a World of Hurt

Wanton, revenge upon the church
They've made your life a misery, lewd, lascivious
Atrocious conflict, you know it must take place
First midnight dance with orgy, fear, and songs of evil chant

Songs of Evil Chant!!!

(Lead)

Alright!!!

In sight your army sees the troops of churchmen whom they'll slay with spite
With sword and mace they stand prepared for war
The arrogance built up inside the army you have brought this night
Ensures that what you've taught your men they will bestow

The two armies collide in war and mangled bodies tell the score
It looks as though your army is a bit infirm
But then your army pulled its weight and forced the churchmen to retreat
And hacked them down until the churchmen were no more
